EVENT BROCHURE

A HOTEL IN THE GREEN HEART OF BERLIN

Das Stue

Located right next to the Berlin Zoo and the city's cultural highlights, Das Stue offers guests an exclusive retreat in the heart of Berlin. This neoclassical building in the embassy district blends historic elegance with modern luxury. The hotel is defined by its stylish design, French cuisine at CARTE BLANCHE, and sophisticated bar culture at the STUE BAR. Das Stue means "living room" in Danish. To us, it embodies tranquility, aesthetics, and urban indulgence.

It features 78 rooms and suites, CARTE BLANCHE restaurant, STUE BAR, THE SPA, a fitness room, and a private access to the Berlin Zoo.

MEETINGS AND EVENTS

Das Stue

Conferences and events at Das Stue are extraordinary experiences. Whether you're planning a luxurious wedding, a casual dinner with colleagues and business partners, an impressive press conference, or an inspiring meeting, the hotel offers the perfect setting. Our stylish libraries, elegant salons, and versatile rooms create an environment where creative minds can exchange ideas, panels can be held, and product launches become unforgettable. First-class catering, an exclusive ambiance, and a private atmosphere ensure that your guests will remember your event long after it ends.

EVENTS: ANYTHING BUT ORDINARY

Das Stue

Our historic venue is the perfect setting for conferences, seminars, pop-up fashion shows, and private celebrations with two stylish conference rooms and several versatile event spaces. The venue's modern functionality blends seamlessly with its unique charm, making every event an unforgettable experience.

BEL ETAGE SALON

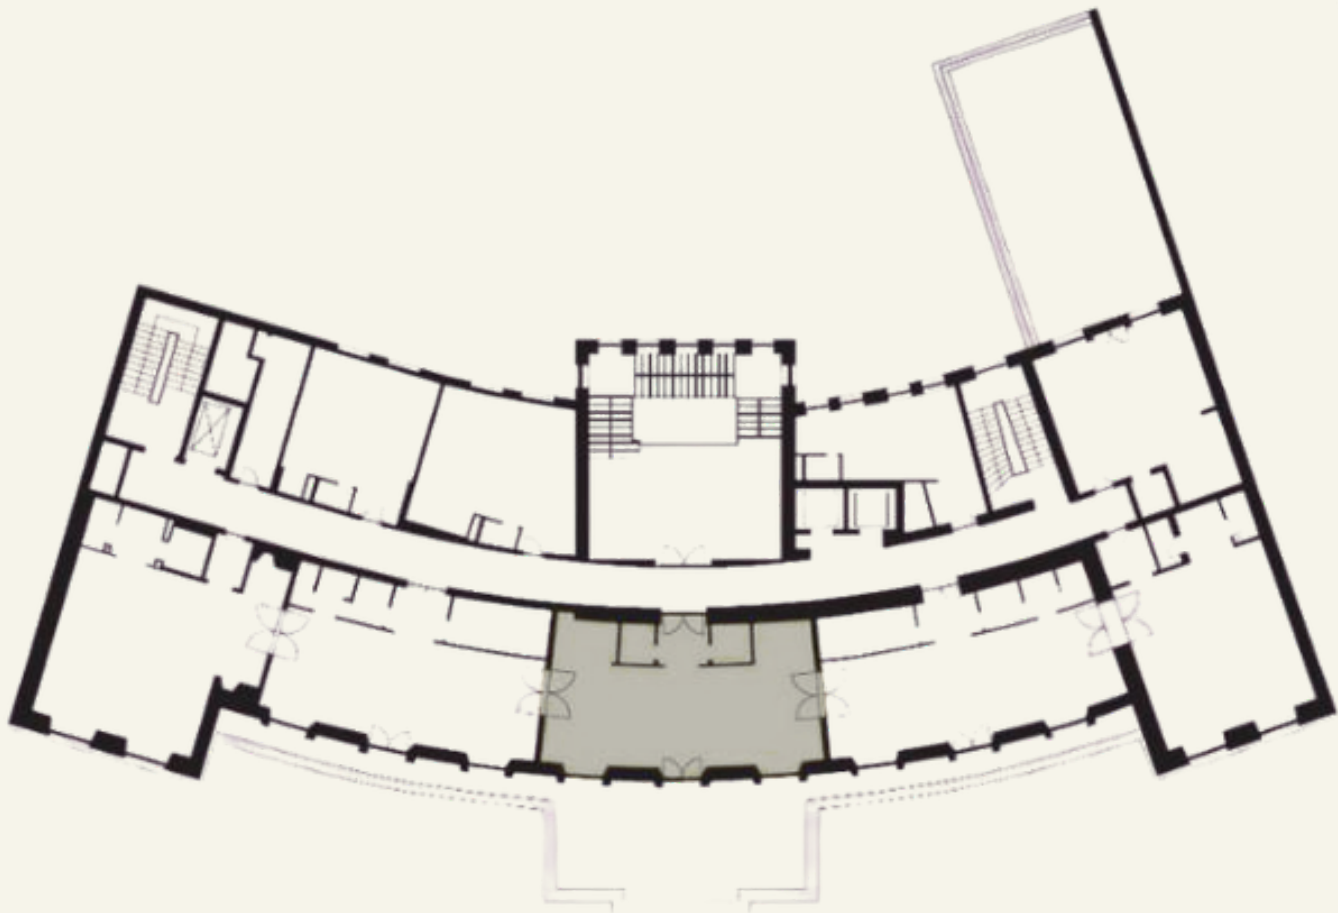

Das Stue

The salon, which once housed the Danish Embassy, is still lit by its original 1930s lamps. With its five-meter-high ceilings, the Bel Etage Salon is an elegant venue that is ideal for cocktail receptions, private dinners, small meetings, and press conferences of up to 50 people. A particular highlight is the adjoining terrace, which offers magnificent views of the Tiergarten and invites guests to relax outdoors. Through connecting doors, the Bel Etage Salon can be expanded to include up to four additional suites.

CARTE BLANCHE SALON

Das Stue

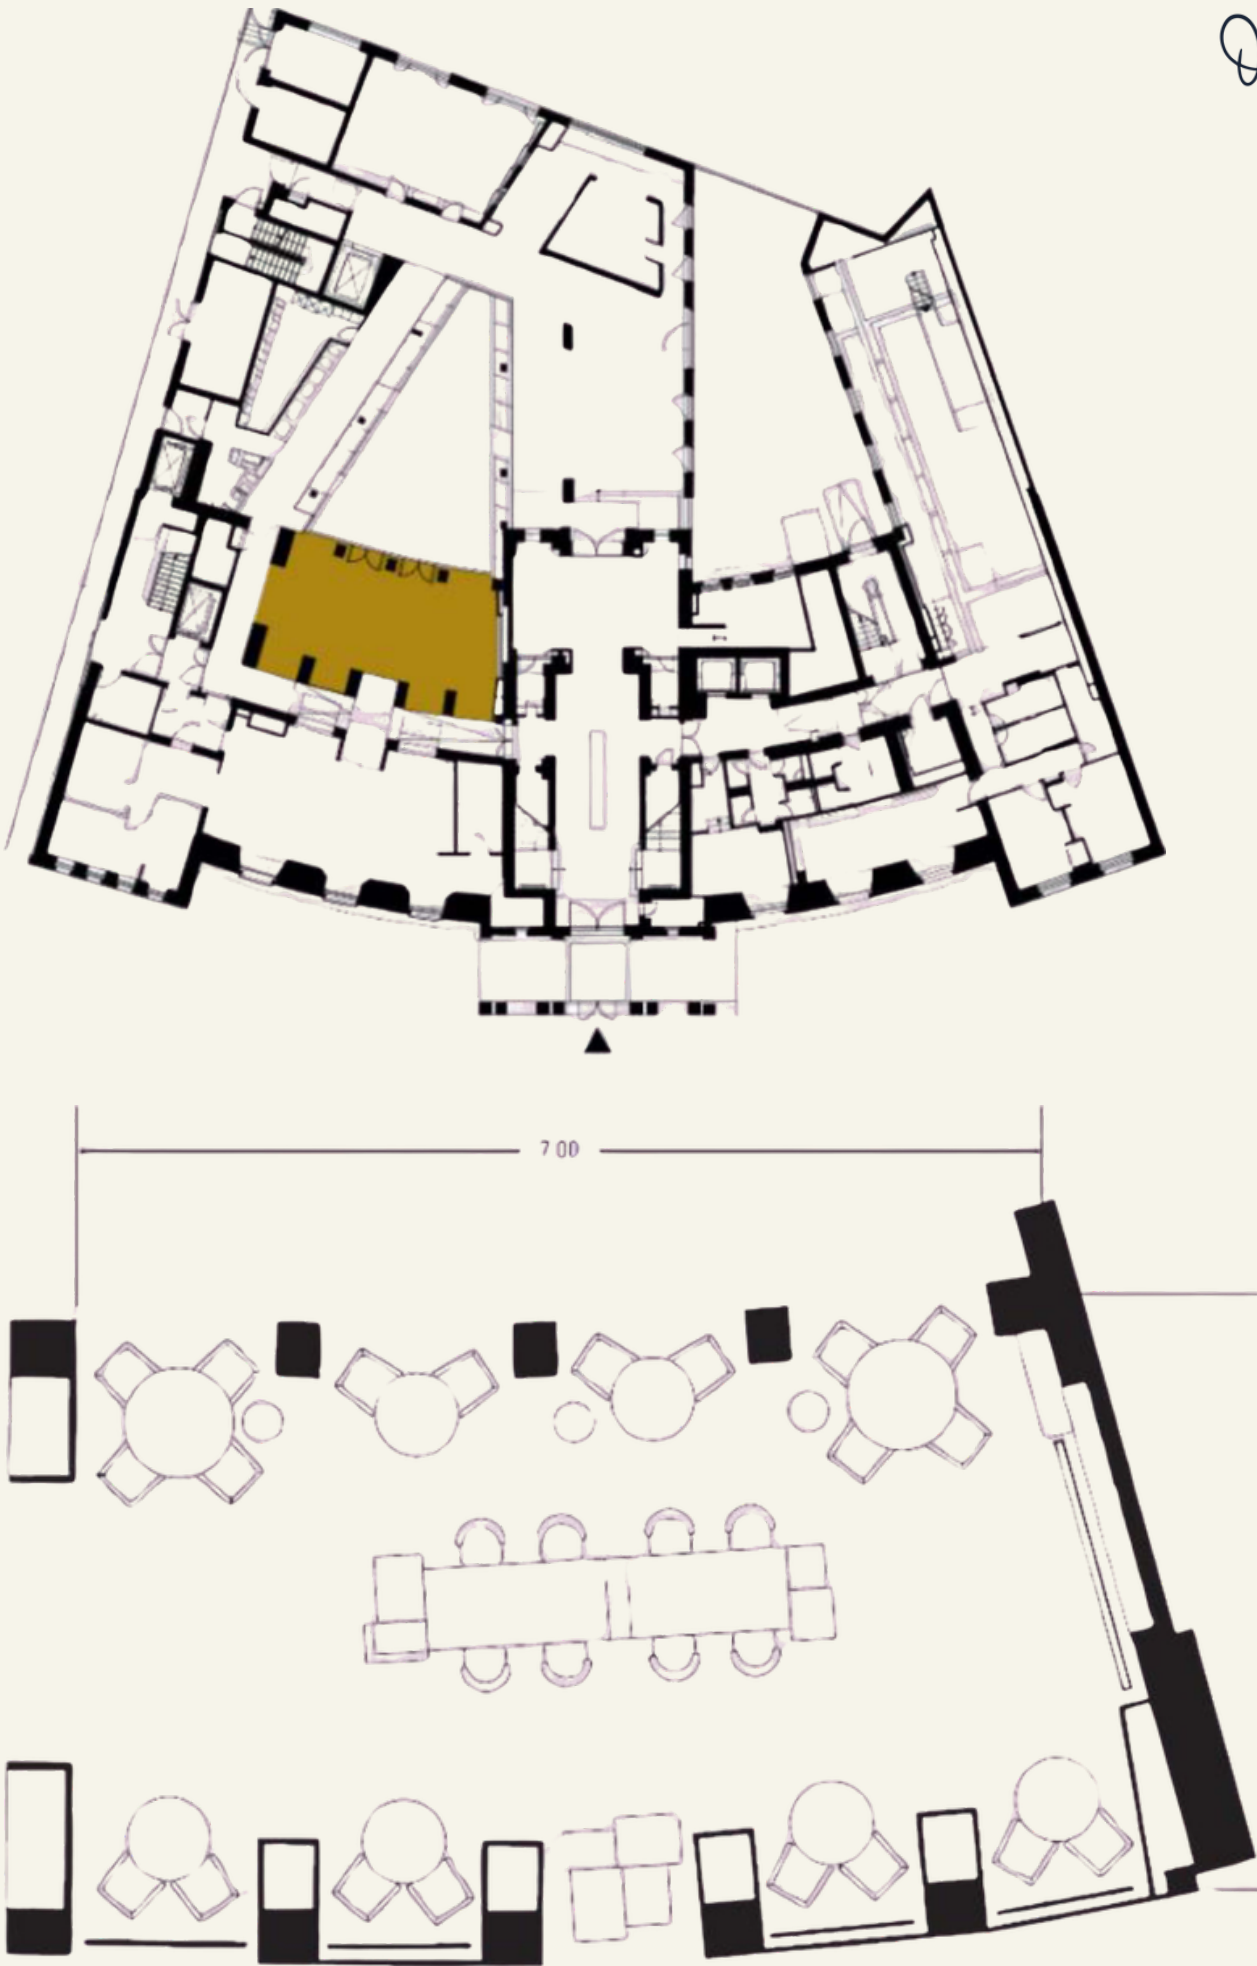

Originally conceived as a fine dining restaurant, the Carte Blanche Salon is now an extension and separate dining room of the CARTE BLANCHE. The centerpiece of the Salon is its iconic collection of copper pots and pans. This collection has been skillfully arranged above the central table and features Tom Dixon lighting. Strategically placed ceiling mirrors allow guests to watch the food being prepared in the kitchen. Contemporary photographs complement the interior.

Both the all-day dining restaurant, CARTE BLANCHE, and the Carte Blanche Salone are available for exclusive booking and can be combined to accommodate up to 75 people.
